The largest law firm in Albania with some 35 lawyers, Kalo & Associates was originally established and founded by Përparim Kalo in 1994. The firm rapidly developed into a prominent and successful practice offering high quality, efficient, and cost-effective legal services. Kalo & Associates now has six partners, and with the knowledge, professionalism and experience of its lawyers the firm has demonstrated an unyielding capacity in handling intricate and complex legal matters.

The firm offers legal services in all core areas of commercial and corporate law for foreign and multinational companies, many of Fortune 500. Key practice areas include Corporate (M&A, JVs), Banking, Project Finance, Infrastructure, Concessions/PPPs, Tax and Employment.

The firm is active in legislative development, having provided input for the new company law, corporate and municipal bonds, financial leasing, insurance, collective investment funds and pension funds law.

Ranked as a leading law firm by Chambers Europe, Chambers Global and IFLR1000: “the always professional and very efficient Kalo & Associates is one of the largest and most well-established law firms in Albania and highly regarded by the market for their quick advice” (IFLR1000).

Clients are keen to emphasise their confidence in the firm’s unshakeable integrity: “this thoroughly reputable group always leaves you completely satisfied,” said one.

With its team of highly-proficient lawyers with western university education, international business acumen and excellent communication skills, the firm is commended for having a “western focus of the practice” and for “consistent quality of advice”.

Marić Law Office has a long-standing reputation stretching back to 1959, having today become the largest and the leading law practice in Bosnia and Herzegovina. The firm is recommended by the EMEA Legal 500 and Chambers for its Corporate and M&A work. Legal 500 says it “is the largest player in the market and its competency is demonstrated by the calibre and profile of the work it wins”.

The firm’s key practice areas are Corporate Law, Banking, Privatisation, M&A, Competition, Real Estate, Energy, Litigation, Intellectual property and other related fields.

The founder and leading lawyer is Branko Marić who is highly spoken of by domestic and international colleagues alike. Assisted by a team of 15 lawyers, the firm covers a good spread of legal matters for what is predominantly an international client base. EMEA Legal 500 hundred describes Branko Marić as an “extremely competent individual who is the centre of commercial affairs”, and Chambers Global as an individual having “broad-ranging legal knowledge and enjoying extensive domestic and international legal and business connections”.

Marić Law Office represents a large number of major investors in the market and helps in realising their investments in Bosnia and Herzegovina in the most efficient manner. The Chambers Global-The World’s Leading Lawyers 2007 notes that clients warmly applaud this popular firm, which has expanded over the past several years. As one client put it: “Law Office Branko Maric offers the best service for international clients in Bosnia right now, charging Bosnian prices for international standards.”

Maric Law Office has its seat in the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina but provides legal services in the whole territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Significant recent cases include legal services pertaining to asset leasing agreements, competition law cases, foreign investments and commercial transactions. Proficient at advising organizations looking to establish businesses in the country, the firm counts an in-house, court- accredited translator among its staff. “Name partner Branko Maric continues to impress with his work ethic and service orientation” and “He works through the night if needs be.” according to Chambers Global 2007.

Karanovic & Nikolic is a dynamic law firm focused on international commercial law. Having served its clients in Montenegro for many years it opened its local office there in 2006 upon independence. Drawing on the international education and experience of its lawyers in both civil and common law, Karanovic & Nikolic provides professional services of the highest possible standard to clients. Ranked by both the Legal 500 and Chambers Global for 10 years as the leading law firm we are proud to serve our clients in their business endeavours in the region.

Areas on which we particularly focus in Montenegro are real estate and hospitality related transactions, infrastructure and banking and finance. Working with the best of local lawyers and the team from Belgrade, clients can rest assured that their corporate deals are handled in a professional and efficient manner.

According to Chambers Global-The World's Leading Lawyers, this outfit is a "market leader" and probably the most prominent firm on major transactions. Its workload includes advising a number of international and regional companies on the privatization of Serbian and Montenegrin oil and energy companies. The team advised Hungarian telecom company Matav in its successful acquisition of Telekom Montenegro.

Chambers (2008) regards the firm as Chambers Europe

"A clear market leader, not least because of its sheer size, this "legendary" firm regularly handles big-ticket transactions and receives a substantial workflow from state authorities and major domestic and foreign businesses.'

The firm is ranked as leading by Chambers in Real Estate, Project Finance, Competition Law and Corporate M&A.
